

CASE STUDY COMPETITION

Confidentiality Policy

Introduction

Protecting your personal information is important to Aéro Montréal/AéroPortail. This statement sets out the practices of this site regarding the collection and use of personal information.

Personal information is information that identifies you personally. Personal information may, for example, include your name, your email address or your mailing address.

Aéro Montréal will not disclose any personal information that you may provide on this site. Please note that the information provided by the teams as part of the competition is collected for the sole purpose of hosting and administering this specific event. It will be used only as part of the competition.

Access

In the event you have already provided us with personal information and wish to verify the content, modify or remove such information from our records, you may do so by contacting the person responsible as indicated at the end of this statement.

Security

Your personal information is treated as confidential and private by Aéro Montréal/AéroPortail. We strive to ensure that your personal information is protected at all times. To maintain the confidentiality of your personal information, it is stored by Aéro Montréal/AéroPortail in a secure environment.

However, despite the security practices developed by Aéro Montréal/AéroPortail which are considered effective to protect the confidentiality of your personal information, Aéro Montréal/AéroPortail cannot guarantee that such information will never be lost, illegally used or fraudulently altered since the confidentiality of information transmitted on the Internet cannot be totally guaranteed. Therefore, we are in no way responsible for any use that may be made of personal information either by you or by a third party.

Modification

Aéro Montréal/AéroPortail reserves the right to change, without further notice, this statement on the protection of personal information on the Internet if it deems it appropriate. However, any change to this statement will be made in accordance with the applicable laws in Canada regarding the protection of personal information and posted on this page.
